

House Resolution No. 1946

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed, of Kearney, Missouri, will receive the prestigious rank of Eagle Scout during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held on Sunday, May 6, 2007, at the Liberty Presbyterian Church; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed is the beloved son of James and Cheryl Reed and the devoted brother of Ashley Reed; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed, a member of Boy Scout Troop 374, successfully met the requirements to attain Eagle status by completing his Eagle project and meeting all other criteria; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed's Eagle Scout project consisted of leading a group of boys and adults in constructing two handicap-accessible water-fountains and benches on the walking trail in Kearney; and

Whereas, in his six years in scouting, Logan James Reed has thirty-one merit badges to his credit, and he is a warrior in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say and a recipient of the Master Camper Award; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed has demonstrated all the skills and abilities needed to discharge the duties of an Assistant Patrol Leader and a Patrol Leader; and

Whereas, being an Eagle Scout has always carried with it a special significance, not only in Scouting but also as he enters higher education, business or industry, and community service, and the award is a performance-based achievement whose standards have been well-maintained over the years; and

Whereas, not every boy who joins a Boy Scout troop earns the Eagle Scout rank, but only about five percent of all Boy Scouts do so; and

Whereas, Logan James Reed realizes that the Eagle rank will be recognized at all levels of our society as being a great achievement that requires considerable dedication and effort:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, extend our congratulations to Logan James Reed and wish him every success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Eagle Scout Logan James Reed.
